Join Us

Eat • Listen • Learn  (FREE PIZZA PROVIDED)

FROM TEHRAN TO SLO

Ms. Shohreh Niku

Please join us to hear Shohreh tell her epic story of the struggle, heartbreak and perseverance it took to leave Iran and the challenges she has faced living in the U.S.

Shohreh Niku was born and raised in Tehran, Iran, in a secular Jewish family where she received her B.Sc. and M.Sc. degrees in Food Science and Technology. She met her future husband in 1973 and they remained together until 1978 when he left to pursue his education in the U.S. Shohreh intended to follow him, but after the revolution of 1979 she was forbidden from leaving the country for 8 years.

Shohreh is currently a lecturer teaching classes in the Food Science and Nutrition and Wine and Viticulture Departments.

International Women’s Day

Hosted by: Cal Poly International Center

When

Friday, March 8, 2019
@12:30 p.m.

Where

Bldg. 10, Room 227

international.calpoly.edu  @CalPolySLOIntl